THE GREAT CAMPAIGN.

News from Gen. Grant to Monday Evening.

General Wilson Tearing Up More Railroads.

Gratifying News from General Hunter.

The Complete Success of his Expedition.

Immense Destruction of Railroads and Supplies.

IMPORTANT FROM SHERMAN.

An Attack on the Rebels at Kenesaw Mountain.

Our Troops Repulsed with a Loss of 2,500.

THE ENEMY'S POSITION VERY STRONG.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, June 28.

To Major-Gen. Dix:

A dispatch from Lieut.-Gen. GRANT, dated yesterday, the 27th, at 9.30 P. M., of his headquarters, reports no operations in front except from our own guns, which fire into the bridge at Petersburgh from a distance of two thousand yards. The dispatch gives the following intelligence from rebel papers. A Petersburgh paper of the 24th inst. states that Gen. HUNTER is striking for Jackson River depot, about forty miles north of Salem, and says that if he reaches Covington, which they suppose he will do with most of his forces, but with loss of material, he will be safe.

The same paper states that Gen. HUNTER, of destroying a great amount of private property, and stealing a large number of wagons, horses and cattle.

The same paper also states that Gen. WILSON destroyed a train of cars, loaded with cotton and provisions, burned the depot buildings, &c., at Burkesville, and destroyed some of the track, and was still working South. All the railroads leading into Richmond are now destroyed, and some of them badly.

A dispatch from Gen. SHERMAN, received this morning, reports that yesterday, June 27, an unsuccessful attack was made by our forces on the enemy's position, which resulted in a loss of between two and three thousand. The following particulars are given:

Pursuant to my orders of the 26th inst. a diversion was made on each flank of the enemy especially down the Sandtown road. At 5 A. M. Gen. McPHERSON attacked at the southwest end of Kenesaw, and Gen. THOMAS at a point about a mile further south. At the same time the skirmishers and artillery along the whole line kept up a sharp fire. Neither attack succeeded, though both columns reached the enemy's works which are very strong.

Gen. McPHERSON reports his loss about 500, and Gen. THOMAS' about 2,000.

The loss is particularly heavy in general field officers. Gen. HARKER is reported mortally wounded; also, Col. DAN. MCCOOK, commanding a brigade; Col. RUSS, Fifty-seventh Ohio, very seriously. Col. BARNUM, Fortieth Illinois, and ANDERSON, Fifty-fifth Illinois, are killed.

Gen. McPHERSON took one hundred prisoners and Gen. THOMAS about as many, but I do not suppose we inflicted a heavy loss on the enemy, as he kept closer behind his parapets.

No other military intelligence has been received by the department.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

GEN. HUNTER'S EXPEDITION.

[OFFICIAL.]

WASHINGTON, June 28, 1864—4 P. M.

Major-Gen. Dix:

The following dispatch has just been received from Gen. HUNTER:

"I have the honor to report that our expedition has been extremely successful, inflicting great injury upon the enemy, and victorious in every engagement. Running short of ammunition, and finding it impossible to collect supplies while in the presence of an enemy believed to be superior to our force in numbers, and constantly receiving reinforcements from Richmond and other points, I deemed it best to withdraw, and have succeeded in doing so without serious loss to this point, where we have met with abundant supplies of food. A detailed report of our operations will be forwarded immediately. The command is in excellent heart and health, and ready after a few days rest for service in any direction."

Nothing later than my telegram of this morning has been received from Gen. GRANT, or Gen. SHERMAN.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

From Gen. Grant's Army.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
Monday, June 27—9 o'clock A. M.

An attack was made on BURNSIDE'S line at about 11 o'clock on Saturday night, with the intention of driving back a working party who were engaged in digging intrenchments toward the enemy's front, so as to gain a better position in which to place guns to more effectually cover the rebel works. The firing was very brisk for about an hour, resulting in our men holding their ground and continuing their labors without any loss of consequence.

The usual amount of picket firing took place Saturday, it being a little more persistent in front of the Ninth Corps than at any other point.

It is usual to relieve picket line shortly after dark, and the rebels being generally on the alert at the least noise, invariably open fire in hope of being able to pick off some men while the change is being made.

It is seldom any harm results from these attacks, as the men have become so careful to screen themselves that it is next to impossible for the rebel sharpshooters to get a range on them.

The health of the troops is in the main good, considering the oppressively hot weather they have had to endure since their arrival here, and the scarcity of water in this section.

The Eighteenth Corps seem to have the greatest number of men in the hospital from the effects of the weather.

The colored troops are reported as being unaffected by the heat. Surgeon JACKSON, in charge of the Fourth Division Hospital, Ninth Corps, reports, that in that division only forty men out of four thousand were unfit for duty when they were put in front on Tuesday last to relieve the Second Corps. This tends to show how much better they can endure the scorching rays of the sun than white troops.

Appearances yesterday afternoon indicated that we should have a shower of rain. Black clouds appearing in the west, accompanied with a good deal of thunder, but we were disappointed. The storm passed off to the northeast, only a few drops falling in this vicinity.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Sheridan's Passage of the James River.

FORTRESS MONROE, Monday, June 27.

The steamer Highland Light arrived here at 6 o'clock, from City Point.

She reports that all is quiet in front.

Gen. SHERIDAN'S command met with a slight loss in an engagement with the enemy's forces at Wilson's Landing, but punished the enemy to a greater extent than our loss.

Gen. SHERIDAN will complete his crossing over the James River at sun-down to-night, which is being accomplished entirely by transports, and not by pontoons, as heretofore erroneously reported.

Operations in Virginia.

From the Washington Republican, June 27.

Gen. HUNTER'S movements have been carried on upon a grand scale, and so far as known down to this morning, have been highly successful, notwithstanding all the efforts of LEE to overtake and entrap him.

It is known in official quarters that Gen. HUNTER has adhered to the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad with a pertinacity unparalleled. He produced a consternation at Lynchburgh that the rebels in that vicinity will never forget.

While one portion of his force was engaged in tearing up the railroads, the other portion fought the enemy. HUNTER then pushed on westerly to Liberty, on the same road, destroying the Big and Little River Railroad bridges, the rails and sleepers on the road, and rebel supplies. From there he moved along the same road to Salem, also destroying a considerable number of bridges, including the railroad bridges over the branches of the Staunton River. At this point he turned northward toward Lynchburg, and, at last accounts, his command was out of the reach of any forces sent against him by LEE. He has performed a great work. He has not done it, of course, without hard fighting and losing some men; but he has done his work and has done it well.

Gen. WILSON has reached Burkesville, the junction of the railroads leading from Danville and Lynchburgh to Richmond and Petersburgh, and destroyed a large portion of both roads.

The cutting of this communication, the accomplishment of which is acknowledged in the Richmond papers, is one of the most important achievements now going on around Richmond.

Take, together with the results of Hunter's expedition, cuts all of Lee's communications with the South and Southwest, and is the beginning of the great work of investing the rebel capital.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.

A Fight Near the Mouth of White River—Defeat of the Rebels.

CAIRO, Sunday, June 26.

Memphis papers say, on the morning of the 22d inst., a detachment of Gen. MARMADUKE'S command, 600 strong, attacked two companies of the Twelfth Iowa Infantry, stationed near the mouth of the White River.

After seven fighting the rebels were repulsed, with a loss of twenty-four killed and wounded.

Our loss was one killed and five wounded.

The removal of the gunboat Tyler from that station probably emboldened the rebels, and but for the fortunate arrival of the gunboat Lexington, the result might have been unfavorable to us.

Our forces fought desperately, repulsing several charges of the rebels, and driving them from the field.

GEN. PILLOW DEFEATED.

An Attack upon Lafayette—The Rebels Repulsed.

CHATTANOOGA, Saturday, June 25.

Yesterday, at 5 o'clock in the morning, a flag of truce was sent into Lafayette, in the name of Gen. PILLOW, demanding the immediate surrender of the town, and threatening to burn it if the demand was not complied with.

The rebels were 2,000 strong, and had completely surrounded the town, and on the refusal of Col. WATKINS, who had only 400 men, to surrender, the rebels advanced from all directions.

At 6 o'clock they occupied three-fourths of the town, when Col. JOHN T. CRAVENS, of the Fourth Kentucky, came up and captured about 70 rebels.

Col. WATKINS lost about 80 killed and as many wounded.

Gen. PILLOW left 100 dead and wounded on the field.

Col. PALMER, of the Seventh Kentucky, was captured in an attempt to make a charge upon the rebels.

The Fire at Rockaway.

THE MARINE PAVILION AND OTHER BUILDINGS BURNED.

From the Long Island Farmer, July 27.

On Saturday last, June 25, at 12 o'clock M., a fire broke out in the Pavilion, at Rockaway, completely consuming that far-famed hotel, with most of its furniture, and extending the work of destruction to several other buildings. Mr. CHANEY'S Beach House and stables; Mr. BAUMANN'S cottage, adjoining the Pavilion; Mrs. BULL'S stables and the extensive barns belonging to the Pavilion.

We are informed that there is insurance on the Pavilion of $30,000. The policy on the furniture for $8,000, expired only a few days since and had not been renewed. The furniture belonging to Mr. BAUMANN, which, together with some very valuable paintings, was destroyed, with the exception of the parlor furniture, that was saved. There were but few boarders in the House, as yet, and we do not hear that they lost any of their effects. WALSINGER & Co. were the lessees of the hotel this Summer. Mr. WALSINGER was in the city on Saturday, and heard of his misfortunes in the afternoon at Jamaica.

Mr. CHANEY, the owner of the Beach House, estimates his loss at $10,000. He is insured $2,000 on his building, $1,500 on his furniture, in the Tradesmens' Insurance Company. We have not been able to ascertain the amount of Mrs. BULL'S loss.

It is not known how the fire originated. Singularly enough, it was first discovered coming up, and inside one of the large columns that supported the north side and rear of the Hotel, and extending directly to the roof; the flames, driven by a stiff breeze, in a very short time enveloped the whole building. The high wind carried the fire over and beyond several buildings, which escaped destruction, to the Beach House, which attacked a considerable distance from the Pavilion.

The Marine Pavilion was a large and splendid edifice. The corner-stone was laid June 1, 1833. When first erected the main building was 250 feet front, three stories high, with wings extending rearward, one 75 and the other 45 feet long. It was erected by an association of gentlemen of the City of New-York, at a cost of $45,000, including land and standing furniture. It was subsequently sold in May, 1836, to STEPHEN WHITNEY and CHARLES A. DAVIS, Esqs., for $30,000. About ten years since, Mr. DANIEL RAMEE, builder, of Jamaica, added one hundred feet to each end of the main building, so that at the time of the fire it had a front of about 450 feet on the Ocean side. The largest front and finest plazas of any hotel in this country, instigated and used on a Summer resort. This noble structure was swept AWAY by fire, in about one hour and a half.

This fire will lessen the travel very materially to Rockaway this Summer. Hundreds were on their way to this famous resort on last Saturday afternoon, but when they neared, at Jamaica, that the Pavilion was destroyed, their route were changed; many continued on east, and many returned to the heated city.

This fire will also entail considerable loss upon several of our enterprising business men. Messrs. J. S. RAMSEE, B. W. CUMMINS and JACOB HAVEN, had most extensive preparations for carrying passengers to and from Rockaway this season.

There will be without doubt another and even a nobler Pavilion built on Rockaway Beach.

LETTER FROM GOVERNOR SEYMOUR TO DISTRICT ATTORNEY HALL, OF NEW-YORK.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, ALBANY, June 25, 1864.

A. Oakey Hall, Esq., District Attorney of the City and County of New-York:

SIR: In the matter of the seizure of the offices of the World and Journal of Commerce, the Grand Jury, in disregard of their oaths "to diligently inquire into and true presentment make of all such matters and things as shall be given them in charge," have refused to make such inquiries, and declare that "it is impossible to examine into the subject referred to in the charge of the Court," with respect to such seizures. It becomes my duty under the express requirements of the Constitution "to take care that the laws of the State are faithfully executed." If the Grand Jury, in pursuance of the demands of the law and the obligations of their oaths, had inquired into the matter given them in charge by the court and the public prosecutor, their conclusion, whatever it might have been, would have been entitled to respect. As they have refused to do their duty, the subject of the seizure of those journals should at once be brought before some proper magistrate. If you will call my attention to the execution of the warrants, I will be given to you.

As it is a matter of public interest that violations of the laws of the State be published, the views or wishes of the parties immediately affected must not be suffered to influence the action of public officers. If through fear, or other motives, they are unwilling to aid you in getting at facts, it will be your duty to compel their attendance as witnesses in behalf of the people. Respectfully yours,

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

FATAL MISTAKE AT SARATOGA—DEATH OF A YOUNG LADY.—SUSAN W. SHEPARD, a young lady 21 years of age, daughter of S. SHEPARD, formerly of the American Hotel, Troy, died at Saratoga on Saturday, from the effects of a wrong dose given by a physician. Her funeral took place from the Fifth-street Baptist Church, in Troy, on Monday morning. The Troy Press gives the following particulars of this sad affair:

Miss SHEPARD and her mother were visiting the family of JOHN BALDWIN, of this place, and during Saturday afternoon Miss S. was taken somewhat ill. Her mother called upon Dr. E. S. PERRINE to prescribe for her daughter. A prescription was prepared by him, and handed to Mrs. SHEPARD, who returned and administered the potion. Miss SHEPARD was soon affected, complained of a singular sensation in her head, and presently remarked that she had never before felt any thing like it, and spoke to have them. Her eyes were observed to dilate unnaturally, and within a few minutes she became completely prostrated. Dr. STRONG, whose residence is but a square distant, was promptly summoned, and hurried to the scene. At first the doctor could not believe that the medicine had produced the effect, and to show his confidence took a spoonful of it himself. But on more closely scrutinizing the peculiar symptoms, he came to the conclusion that Mrs. and Miss SHEPARD must be poisoned, and at once ascertained that he must have given a medicine he did not intend to, and that in her condition there was danger it would prove fatal. Immediate efforts were made, however, to relieve her of the fatal potion, and to counteract its effects, but without avail. She lived only about an hour and a half after the medicine was administered. Dr. STRONG was intensely affected, and expressed a willingness to take the place of the young lady if there would restore her. In explanation of the mistake, he states that there are two bottles standing near together on his shelves labelled respectively "Geranium" and "Colocynthum," the contents of which are similar in appearance. He intended to give the "Geranium," but unfortunately gave the "Colocynthum." The mistake, it will be seen, was one of the eye, deceived by the similarity of the words in appearance, the beginnings and terminations being exactly alike. The "Colocynthum," tends to produce nervous prostration, and in small doses, such as was inadvertently given to this young lady, would not ordinarily have a fatal effect. Delicate females frequently given from three to four small doses a day. But in the case of Miss SHEPARD, her nervous system was peculiarly susceptible to the poisonous influence of the drug. Dr. STRONG, himself, owing to the mental depression following the termination of this sad case, was affected by the dose he had taken, and recourse was had to stimulants to aid in relieving him from the unpleasant effects. Many absurd rumors have been set afloat respecting his condition, for which there are no foundations in truth.

Maryland a Free State.

From the Baltimore American, June 27.

The Twenty-third article of the Bill of Rights, reads as follows:

"Hereafter, in this State, there shall be neither Slavery nor involuntary servitude, except in punishment of crime, whereof the party shall be duly convicted; and all persons held to service or labor as slaves, are hereby declared free."

This article, after a protracted debate in the Constitutional Convention, in the course of which it was maintained by a majority of those by the advocates of Anti-Slavery, was passed, as our readers have already learned, by a vote of 42 yeas to 27 nays.

There is no single act in the history of Maryland that can compare in importance with the passage of this article. As we gaze through the long vista of coming years, and contemplate the changes that will be wrought by this measure, we are overwhelmed with the immeasurable significance of an act so overdrous in its simplicity.

The reception of this news hardly creates a ripple upon the current of our responsibility. It was a foregone conclusion, and our minds were long ago made up in regard to its realization. We are not taken by surprise, and we do not burrah with wild excitement. We simply enjoy the calmer and the higher satisfaction that springs from the consciousness of duty done. We understood the nature of the obstacles to be overcome, and we knew of the means that were to remove them. We rejoice quietly in the hour of consummation, and in many homes there are eyes expressing glad at the success which has crowned our efforts.

The members of the convention will look back upon that day as one laden with precious memories. Should it be the only public act in the life of any one of them, their life will not have been lived in vain. It is not granted to every man to gild the evening of his declining days with such a reminiscence.

The regeneration of a commonwealth like ours is not of everyday occurrence. It is hard to estimate this work at its full value. But we shall see and know it better hereafter. All we know now is that the vestiges of a great evil are cleared away; that the author of a great iniquity is extinct root and branch; that to our posterity no compromise is bequeathed which may be a fruitful source of discord hereafter. Slavery is dead, and humanity is honored. We have raised the brow of the United States in the march of Freedom. We have torn away the mask from the deformity of Slavery, and we have wrenched the rod from the oppressor. We look to the future with hearts full of hope and trust, confident that Providence is in its own good time will work out for us a brighter destiny.

We offer our hand to our sister States and ask their congratulations. We ask them to join us in the prayer, God preserve the Commonwealth of Maryland. They have watched our course with approving smiles, and cheered us with words of encouragement, and in this hour of joy we shall not forget the thanks we owe to them.

Extensive Fire in Chatham-street—Damage Estimated at Over $50,000.—Goods after three o'clock yesterday afternoon, flames were discovered issuing from the windows of the 3d floor of the large brick building, known as Nos. 126 and 128 Chatham-street, corner of Hester. The premises were mainly occupied by Mr. E. KREMER, manufacturer and dealer in cabinet furniture. The fire originated in the varnish room, where one of the men was at work at the time. The cause of it is, however, unknown at present. The Fire-Marshal is engaged making an investigation as to its origin. The three upper floors were entirely destroyed, and all the lower portion of the buildings badly damaged. Mr. KREMER'S loss on furniture, fixtures, &c., by fire and water will not fall far short of $40,000. He is insured for $30,000 in the North River, Jasper, Tradesmens', Atlantic, St. Mark's, New-York, Equitable, Phenix, Tea, Astor and other insurance companies. Mr. E. T. TAYLOR, carriage and harness store as a portion-tenant. His damage to stock and fixtures by fire and water is about $4000; insured for $1,500 in the Jefferson Insurance Company. Mr. L. De JONG, who kept a broker's office on the first floor, was damaged to the amount of about $1,500; no insurance. Mr. R. HOFFMANN occupied a small store under the sidewalk on the Hester-street side as a second-hand clothing establishment. A portion of his stock was removed, but he has sustained a loss of about $600. The buildings were owned by Mr. H. F. SHUMAN. The loss on them is between $12,000 and $15,000, said to be fully insured in City companies. Capt. JOURDAN, with the men of the Sixth Precinct, and also platoons from the Third, Fourth and Twenty-seventh Precincts, were on hand promptly, and rendered valuable assistance in saving property.

WAR ITEMS.—An army letter from Petersburgh says that during the fight on Friday one of our boys, either becoming short of ammunition or in the hurry of the engagement, fired the ramrod of his gun from his musket. On the subsequent capture of the works the rebels many found, dead and completely transfixed with the iron shaft.

THE PRESIDENCY.

ACCEPTANCE OF MR. LINCOLN.

Address of the Committee Appointed to Notify Him.

NEW-YORK, June 14, 1864.

HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN—SIR: The National Union Convention, which assembled in Baltimore on June 7, 1864, has instructed us to inform you that you were nominated with unanimous unanimity for the Presidency of the United States for four years from the 4th of March next.

The resolutions of the convention, which we have already had the pleasure of placing in your hands, are a full and clear statement of the principles which inspired its action, and which, as we believe, the great body of Union men in the country heartily approve. Whether those resolutions express the national gratitude to our soldiers and sailors, or the national scorn of compromise with rebels, and consequent dishonor; or the patriotic duty of union and success; whether they approve the Proclamation of Emancipation, the constitutional amendment, the employment of former slaves as Union soldiers, or the solemn obligation of the Government promptly to redress the wrongs of every soldier of the Union, of whatever color or race; whether they declare the inviolability of the pledged faith of the nation, or offer the national hospitality to the oppressed of every land, or urge the union by railroad of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans; whether they recommend public economy and vigorous taxation, or assert the dead popular opposition to the scheme of payment by armed force of foreign mercenaries in the disastrous neighborhood of the United States, or declare that these only are worthy of citizens trust who approve unreservedly the views and policy indicated by the resolutions—they were equally united with the assertions of profound conviction.

Believing with you, Sir, that this is the paramount war for the maintenance of a Government which you have justly described as "of the people, by the people, for the people," we are very sure that you will be glad to know, not only from the resolutions themselves, but from the singular harmony and enthusiasm with which they were adopted, how warm is the popular welcome of every measure in the prosecution of the war, which is to victorious, unalterable and unflinching in the national purpose itself. No right, for instance, to be president and secret to the American heart as that of personal liberty. Its violation is regarded with just, instant, and universal jealousy. Yet in this hour of peril, every faithful citizen conceded that, for the sake of national existence and the common welfare, individual liberty may, as the Constitution provides in case of rebellion, be temporarily subordinated, asking only with patiently anxiety that in every instance, due to the last extent, that absolutely necessary power shall not be tardily or unwisely exercised.

We believe, Sir, that the honest will of the Union men of the country was never more truly represented than in this convention. Their purpose we believe is to be the overthrow of armed rebels in the field, and the security of permanent peace and union by liberty and justice under the Constitution. That these results are to be achieved amid great perplexities, they are fully aware. That they are to be reached only through candid examination of counsel, is undeniable. That good men may sometimes differ as to the means and the time, they know. That in the conquest of all human affairs the highest duty is to determine, in the angry conflict of passion, how much good may be practically accomplished, is their sincere persuasion. They have watched your official course, therefore, with undagging attention, and amid the bitter taunts of eager friends and the fierce denunciation of enemies, now moving too fast for some, now too slowly for others, they have seen you throughout this tremendous contest patient, sagacious, faithful, just; leaning upon the heart of the great mass of the people, and entitled to be moved by its mighty pulse-tions.

It is for this reason that, long before the convention met, the popular instinct had plainly indicated you as its candidate; and the convention, therefore, merely recorded the popular will. Your character and career prove your unswerving fidelity to the cardinal principles of American liberty and of the American Constitution. In the name of that liberty and Constitution, Sir, we earnestly request your acceptance of this nomination; personally commanding our beloved country, and you, its Chief Magistrate, with all its brave sons who, on sea and land, are faithfully defending the good old American cause of equal rights, to the blessing of Almighty God.

We are, Sir, very respectfully, your friends and fellow-citizens,

Reply of Mr. Lincoln.

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, June 22, 1864.

Hon. William Dennison and others, a Committee of the Union National Convention.

GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 14th inst., formally notifying me that I have been nominated by the convention you represent for the Presidency of the United States for four years from the 4th of March next, has been received. The nomination is gratefully accepted, as the resolutions of the convention—called the platform—are heartily approved.

While the resolution in regard to the supplanting of Republican Government upon the Western Continent is fully concurred in, there might be misunderstanding were I not to say that the position of the Government in relation to the contest of France in Mexico, as assumed through the State Department and indorsed by the convention, accords with the views and acts of the Executive, will be faithfully maintained so long as the state of facts shall leave that question unchanged and unembarrassed.

I am especially gratified that the soldiery and the seamen who are not forgotten by the convention, are forever remembered and will be remembered by the national country for whose salvation they devote their lives.

Thanking you for the kind and complimentary terms in which you have communicated the resolution and other proceedings of the convention, I subscribe myself,

Your obedient servant,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

AMERICAN TOPICS.

THE ALABAMA.

The notorious rebel cruiser Alabama arrived at Cherbourg, France, on the 11th of June, and was admitted to free pratique. She landed 41 prisoners—the crews of the ship Tycoon, Capt. ADAMS, from New-York, bound to San Francisco, destroyed by the Alabama; and of the ship Rockingham, previously reported destroyed.

Capt. SEMMES has requested the Times to report the reasons why the Confederate cruisers burn their prizes and his suggestions for a remedy. The communication, which the Times of course publishes, fills two columns and a half of the paper. He says it was the intention to have sent all his prizes for adjudication into the ports most convenient for the parties concerned, but this intention was frustrated by British order in council. Capt. SEMMES asks was it expected that he would abandon the right of capture altogether, or that he would be guilty of the childish play of capturing the enemy's ships with one hand and releasing them with the other? Further, he inquires what inconvenience in Great Britain, for example, could possibly have grown out of the fact of the captured vessels lying quietly in the port of Liverpool in charge of a ship-keeper and prize-agent until she could be adjudicated, and if she should be condemned, why should she not have been sold as quietly as if she had been seized and sold under any execution for debt. Capt. SEMMES takes credit to himself for the economy of time and money in burning as they recognize their value as a means of prize money to the good of the Confederate States.

The Times replies to Capt. SEMMES' arguments as follows in the burning of ships, and shows them to be fallacious and justifiably unsound.

BELLIGERENT CRUISERS.

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS TO GOVERNORS OF COLONIES.

The following instructions have just been sent by Her Majesty's Government to Governors of Colonies respecting the treatment of prizes captured by Federal or Confederate cruisers if brought into British waters:

DOWNING-STREET, June 8, 1864.

SIR: I think it well to communicate to you the decisions at which Her Majesty's Government have arrived on certain questions which have arisen respecting the treatment of prizes captured by Federal or Confederate cruisers if brought into British waters.

1. If any prize captured by a ship of war of either of the belligerent Powers shall be brought by the captors within Her Majesty's jurisdiction, notice shall be given by the Governor to the captors immediately to depart and remove such prize.

2. A vessel which shall have been actually and bona fide converted into and used as a public vessel of war shall not be deemed to be a prize within the meaning of these rules.

3. If any prize shall be brought within Her Majesty's jurisdiction through mere stress of weather, or other extreme and unavoidable necessity, the Governor may allow for her removal such time as he may consider to be necessary.

4. If any prize shall not be removed at the time prescribed to the captors by the Governor, the Governor may detain such prize until Her Majesty's pleasure shall be made known.

5. If any prize shall have been captured by any ship of war within the territorial waters of Her Majesty, the Governor may detain such prize until Her Majesty's pleasure shall be made known.

Her Majesty's Government have not thought it necessary to make any addition to the instructions already given with respect to corsairs—viz., that Her Majesty's orders apply as much to prize corsairs of every kind which may be brought by any armed ships as privateers of either belligerent into British waters or to the captured vessels themselves. They have also not thought it necessary to give any articles which may be framed part of any such corsairs if brought within British jurisdiction, and by armed ships or privateers of either belligerent, but by other persons who may have acquired or may claim property in them by reason of any dealing with the captors.

These rules are for the guidance of the executive authority, and are not intended to interfere in any way with the process of any court of justice.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) EDWARD CARDWELL.

FEDERAL RECRUITING.

From the Gilson Chronicle.

The Mumps Railway Station has, on two or three occasions recently, presented a rather unexpected appearance, consequent on the departure of a Victory recruiter for America. It seems that a party representing himself as to recruit Americans and Canadians for the Federal army, has been in the habit of visiting Mumps at intervals to escape observation. Inducements are held out to the Northern States. Inquiries are particularly made for females, but it has been remarked, that men are most frequently engaged; in fact, only a very slight proportion of women find acceptance. On Monday last, ten of the men took their departure, there were only six of the weak their departure, there were only two females. The party by whom these engagements are made is said to be unquestionably a Yankee. He is accompanied by a "clerk," and comes to Chelsea with a first-class return ticket. He sleeps at the Railway Hotel, Mumps, and seems to think he could stand at his own door and count up the fine seven factories at a stand-still for want of hands. Under these circumstances it is scarcely to be wondered at if he gets numerous of recruits and he intended goes on his way merry from house, leaving in his wake many a disconsolate parent thereof. MONETARY AFFAIRS.

[Tuesday, June 28—5 P. M.]

The demand for Money continues quite sharp to-day from the Brokers at 7 ⅌ cent. The large reduction on the line of Deposits of the Clearing-house Banks last week has its influence with lenders, inducing the belief that the amount of Greenback Currency available in the market is at present by no means excessive, nor likely soon to be materially increased. The rate for Money to the Brokers is full 7 ⅌ cent.

The Gold and Exchange rates, which were influenced upwardly yesterday by certain failures in contracts to deliver Bills on London at the close of the present and through the succeeding month, were maintained to-day by adverse news from the Army of the Southwest. The sales of Gold were at 133@137@136@138 ⅌ cent., closing with Change heare, about 138 ⅌ cent.

The Stock Exchange this morning resolved to adjourn over the National holiday from Friday afternoon to Tuesday morning, 5th prox., thus affording the Brokers a liberal relaxation from business, and the most ample enjoyment of the Fourth of July. The market at the early Board was about steady in prices, as compared with Monday afternoon, but rather spiritless as to an active or well-defined speculation. In the Afternoon the changes were not important nor the extent of actual business very large. All sympathy between the Stock Exchange and the price of Gold and Bills on London appears to have ceased, and we also notice an indisposition in the markets for Produce and Foreign and Domestic Merchandise to follow up the advance in Gold. The weekly Cattle market yesterday was lower in place of higher.

The scarcity of Money brought down the U. S. Certificates of Indebtedness to-day to 99¾@ 99¼ ⅌ cent. Heavy sales of the 6-20 Bonds were made at 104 ⅌ cent, the minimum at which the new Loan of 1881 is to be awarded on the 5th proximo.

At 4 o'clock, the following prices were made in comparison with the same hour yesterday. The market was generally depressed under the experience, among the Brokers, of the Money rates and supply of the day:

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

Official advices from Gen. GRANT, up to Monday evening, May 16, at 3307 M., are received. No new operations are reported. Our lines in front of Petersburg have been advanced to the Appomattox, at a distance of 7500 yards. A Petersburg paper of the 16th, says that Wilmington is cut off from Richmond.

The Richmond Dispatch publishes Gen. BUTLER'S order declaring the capture of Beauregard. He was still occupying his old quarters at Drewry's Bluff. Gen. Butler's headquarters were at Bermuda Hundred.

The City of Lynchburg was visited by a terrible conflagration on the 17th, which destroyed property to the amount of $2,000,000. The fire originated in a tobacco factory, and spread before the energy of the people and engines could check it. Nearly all the business portion of the city was destroyed. Many of the principal hotels, churches, banks, and public buildings were burned. The Lynchburg Republican says that the fire was the work of incendiaries, and that the rebel authorities had determined to destroy the city before evacuating it. The Richmond Whig says that the fire was the work of Yankee raiders, and that the Lynchburg Virginian

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatches to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, June 28.

THE ARGUELLES CASE.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs had a protracted discussion to-day over the Arguelles case. Secretary Seward has sent to the committee a very elaborate report upon the subject, in which the position of the Government in issuing Arsenal pass to the Spanish authorities is not only sustained, but fully justified. The committee adjourned without coming to any decision in the matter. It will undoubtedly go over until next session.

INCREASE OF TAXES ON IRON, WHISKY, TOBACCO AND PETROLEUM.

Secretary CHASE was with the Senate Finance Committee to-day for some time. He has prepared a bill providing for further increase of tax upon iron, whisky, tobacco and petroleum. He says that the present Tax Bill will fall short of the wants of the Government at least $75,000,000; that this deficit must be made up by further taxation upon the articles mentioned.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The Conference Committee on the Tariff Bill have nearly adjusted their disagreements, and will be ready to report to-morrow. Secretary CHASE was with them for a long time to-day, arranging and simplifying the bill.

A SECESSIONIST-VALLANDIGHAM MEETING IN WASHINGTON.

It is said that the Fremont-Vallandigham demonstration in New-York on Monday night, is to be followed up soon by a like demonstration in Washington, under the very nose of the White House. There has been an effort made to get it up before the adjournment of Congress. But this will not, probably, be successful. The Copperheads are mostly absent from Washington at their posts, but the Union members of both Houses give it the cold shoulder.

The term of service of the Seventy-second New-York Volunteers (Third Excelsior) has expired, and severely members of the organization will arrive from City Point to-morrow. The remainder of the regiment has been consolidated with the One Hundred and Forty-second New-York.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, June 28.

GEN. CISCO'S SUCCESSOR AS ASSISTANT TREASURER AT NEW-YORK.

It is said that Mr. M. B. Field will succeed Mr. Cisco as Assistant Treasurer at New-York.

CONFIRMATIONS BY THE SENATE.

The Senate in Executive Session to-day, confirmed the following nominations of Postmasters:

John Chapman, at Oneida, N. Y.; Hiram W. Wemple, at Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Lorena E. Jones, at Quincy, Ill.

ADMIRALTY CASES.

The bill heretofore introduced by Representative Ogden, passed the House to-day. It substitutes a District Court for Kings, Queens, Richmond and Suffolk Counties, in New-York, to facilitate proceedings in Admiralty cases.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE PRESIDENT.

The President, in reply to a resolution of inquiry, sent to the Senate to-day a communication from the Secretary of State, from which it appears that no authority has been given by the Executive of this Government or by any Executive Department to any one either in this country or elsewhere, to obtain recruits either in Ireland or Canada, or in any foreign country, for either the army or navy of the United States, but, on the contrary, that whenever application for such authority has been made, it has been refused and plainly withheld.

THE TAX BILL.

Representative PERHAM called to-day, but did not obtain general consent, to report from the Committee of Ways and Means, a new Tax Bill, by which it is desired to raise an additional $100,000,000. The contents of the bill have not yet been officially made public.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, June 28.

RELIEF OF OFFICERS OF INDIAN REGIMENTS.

The Senate passed the House bill for the relief of the officers of the Fourth and Fifth Indian Regiments, who were commissioned by the War Department, but not mustered into the service.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The President pro tem. appointed Messrs. FESSENDEN, MORGAN and POMEROY, to act with Messrs. MORRILL, FARWELL and COX, on the part of the House, as the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing amendments to the Tariff Bill.

TRADE WITH REBEL STATES.

The Senate took up the bill amendatory of the laws concerning commercial intercourse between the loyal and insurrectionary States, &c.

Mr. MORRILL, of Maine, (Union,) offered an amendment providing that any officer of the United States, civil, military or naval, or any sutler, marine, or other person who shall violate any provision of this act, or who shall transport, or sell, or otherwise dispose of therein any goods whatsoever, except in pursuance of the authority of the President of the United States and under the rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be liable to indictment as for a misdemeanor, and fined not exceeding $5,000 and to punishment in the Penitentiary not exceeding three years.

Mr. SUMNER, of Missouri, (Union,) thought this bill went too far in rendering liable to the Penitentiary those who might unintentionally violate the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. MORRILL replied that the bill simply provided for the enforcement of the present law, as great frauds had been perpetrated.

Mr. TRUMBULL, of Illinois, (Union,) understood the bill as intended only to punish those who violate the law, and give aid and comfort to the enemy. He suggested several amendments which Mr. MORRILL accepted, and that part of the bill which renders a violation of the rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury punishable, and providing for the punishment of those who knowingly and willfully violate the law.

Mr. DOOLITTLE, of Wisconsin, (Union,) offered an amendment, which was agreed to, making the penalties in the bill apply to officers who willfully compromise and misappropriate private or public property, or make false returns.

Mr. MORRILL offered an amendment allowing trade so far as is necessary for supplying the necessities of loyal persons residing in insurrectionary States within our lines, and to enable them to market in the loyal States the products of their own labor and give the luxury of freedmen, not others employed and paid by them.

After further amendments, the bill was passed—yeas 21, nays 13.

MILITARY INTERFERENCE IN ELECTIONS.

The pending motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill to prevent military interference with the elections was passed, was taken up and rejected—yeas 16, nays 20.

CONGRESSIONAL TRAVELLING.

Mr. RIDDLE, of Delaware, (Dem.,) called up the resolution to allow Senators and Representatives to visit the military forts, prisons and hospitals in their respective States.

A vote being taken, the resolution was not accepted—yeas 21, nays 24.

THE BUREAU OF FREEDMEN'S AFFAIRS.

The bill to establish a Bureau of Freedmen's Affairs came up as unfinished business.

The pending amendment to repeal the joint resolution, explanatory of the Confiscation Act was rejected—yeas 20, nays 18.

Mr. DOOLITTLE offered the following amendment, as a new section:—That all persons who shall hereafter be appointed Generals, and clerks, as well as the assistant special agents, appointed within States which shall participate in, aid and abet the civil insurrection in the military service of the United States, or to be liable to trial by courts-martial or military commission, or to be ordered by the Commander-in-Chief of the Military Department within which they may at such time be serving, to any military duty, persistently refuse, desert, or supervisor special agents) and for all offences amounting to felony, for any act of embezzlement or willful misappropriation of public or private property; for any willful act of oppression of any character, or any of the high crimes known by any act of Congress or otherwise punishable by law, or any act done or omitted by them in their official capacity; or for being in any manner interested in any purchase of cotton, tobacco, sugar or any other article produced upon any lands leased or occupied under the provisions of this act, or in carrying on any business, or in owning in any manner directly or indirectly interested in the same, unless such interest accrued under the operation of the laws of descent or for any other cause without the voluntary act of their official duties, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to punishment by fine not exceeding $10,000, or imprisonment at hard labor for a period not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The amendment was rejected—yeas 18, nays 20.

Mr. HOWARD, of Michigan, (Union,) moved to amend the bill by striking out the word "white" in the first section, so as to prohibit slavery.

Mr. SUMNER moved to amend by striking out "Treasury" and inserting "War" Department, in the clause insuring the bounty.

Rejected, 20 against 18.

On motion of Mr. COLLAMER, the Senate went into Executive session at 6½ o'clock.

The Senate at 8 o'clock took a recess until 9.

EVENING SESSION.

LOCATION OF LAND WARRANTS.

Mr. HARLAN, of Iowa, (Union,) called up the bill for the extension of time for the location of land warrants, and it passed.

RESERVATION OF MINERAL LANDS.

On motion of Mr. HARLAN, the House bill reserving mineral lands from the operation of all acts of the present session granting lands, or extending the time of former grants, was taken up, and passed.

THE TARIFF BY DR. TOWNE.

Mr. DAVIS, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) submitted a resolution, which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, declaring valid the appointment of the person of WILLIAM TOWNE by President LINCOLN, which had afterward been revoked.

CLOSING UP BUSINESS.

Mr. SUMNER submitted the following:

Resolved, That all unpassed bills in the hands of the committees of this session, including those before the Committee, shall be continued to the next session and shall then be proceeded with in the same manner as if no adjournment had taken place; and that the papers which have been referred to the committee and may be in their possession at the close of the session shall be returned informally to the Secretary and by him restored to the committees when appointed at the next session.

Mr. MCDOUGALL, of California, (Dem.,) moved to substitute a resolution declaring that the answer of the Secretary of State to the Senate resolution No. 47 on Mexican Affairs, be taken from the committee and be ordered to be printed.

He desired that these documents should be placed in the hands of the Senators, and not covered up under the proposed resolution.

The motion of Mr. MCDOUGALL was lost, and the original resolution passed.

FREEDMEN'S AFFAIRS.

The bill to establish a Freedmen's Bureau came up in the regular order of business, and the remaining amendments of the committee were agreed to.

The Enrollment Bill was received from the House, and returned to the Military Committee. The evening session was chiefly occupied in a heated debate between Messrs. WILKINSON, of Minnesota, and DAVIS, of Kentucky, on the Freedmen's Bureau Bill.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, June 28.

THE REPORT OF THE CUSTOM-HOUSE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

AMBROSE W. CLARK, of New-York, (Union,) from the Committee on Printing, reported a resolution that 2,500 copies of the Report of the New-York Custom-house affairs be printed; also, a resolution that 20,000 copies of the Internal Revenue Act be printed for the use of members. The resolutions were passed.

THE LOAN BILL.

Mr. HOOPER, of Massachusetts, (Union,) called up the Senate's amendment to the House Loan Bill, to except the seventy-five millions of bonds recently advertised from the operations of this act.

Mr. BANKS, of New-York, (Dem.,) asked whether that amount comes from the nine hundred million loan, or from the four hundred millions in the bill.

Mr. HOOPER explained that the four hundred millions is additional to the seventy-five millions, forty of which have already been taken.

Mr. HOLMAN, of Indiana, (Dem.,) offered an amendment to the Senate's amendment, providing that nothing in this act shall impair the right of any State to tax the bonds, notes and other obligations of the United States, as other personal property is taxed.

The House rejected Mr. HOLMAN's amendment by a vote of 71 against 77, and then agreed to the Senate's amendment.

Mr. TODD, delegate from Dacota, obtained permission to make a personal explanation in reply to a printed speech of WILLIAM JAYNE, whose seat Mr. TODD successfully contested.

Mr. TODD reiterated that Mr. JAYNE was connected with frauds, and produced evidence to refute the charge that he (TODD) resigned as a military officer, for fear he would be dismissed for cowardice.

THE ENROLLMENT BILL.

The House by yeas 89, nays 71, then reconsidered the vote by which they last night rejected Mr. SPALDING's substitute for the bill to regulate and provide for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces.

Mr. SPALDING demanded the "previous question," under the operation of which his substitute was adopted by yeas 81, nays 73.

It authorizes the President, at his discretion, at any time, to call for any number of volunteers, not less or more, than three years, in case of a draft any substitute shall be credited to any town, precinct, or election district, toward filling the quota of which he may have volunteered or been drafted.

Every volunteer or substitute, who may be enrolled for one year, unless honorably discharged, shall be paid a bounty of $200; for two years $300, and for three years $400, to be paid at stated intervals.

In case of the death of the volunteer or substitute, the bounty remaining shall be paid to the wife, children or legal representatives of such volunteer or substitute, and in case of honorable discharge by reason of wounds, such volunteer or substitute shall receive the full bounty.

In case the quota of any town shall not be filled in sixty days after the Presidents call, he is authorized to order a draft for one year to fill such quota, and in case of any such draft no payment of money shall be accepted or received by the Government to release any enrolled or drafted man from military service.

It is, among other provisions, made lawful for the Executive of any State to accept in the rebellious States, if it is not provided that volunteer under 18 years of age, enlisted without the consent of their parents and guardians, shall be discharged.

Persons in the naval service, who have entered during the present rebellion, are to be credited to the quota of any town, district, ward or, State by reason of their being in said service and not enrolled prior to February last.

An amendment was offered, but rejected by yeas 41 nays 10, that recruiting persons between the ages of 45 and 50 years should be enrolled and formed to draft, in the same manner as persons between 20 and 45.

Mr. STEVENS offered an amendment, "That the provisions of this act shall not be altered or affected by this act, except so far as it regards the amount of money to be paid on exemptions." The Amendment was rejected 68—yeas 72, nays 68. The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, and then passed by a vote of 79 yeas against 73 nays, as follows:

THE QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.

The House passed the Senate bill, with amendments, for the better organization of the Quartermaster's Department.

Mr. ASHLEY, in response to a question asked by Mr. HOLMAN, said he did not intend to press his motion to reconsider the vote by which the joint resolution to amend the Constitution so as to abolish Slavery, was heretofore rejected, but that he should press it to a vote early in the next session.

The House passed the bill facilitating Admiralty cases in New-York.

The House then adjourned.

THE NATIONAL LIFE AND LIMB INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW-YORK.—This excellent institution, the object of which is to enable our brave soldiers, in case of injury to themselves, to secure to their families a capital of from one to five thousand dollars, deserves public attention and support. Its objects are humane and commendable. CARSON BLUNT, Esq., who has been indefatigable in his efforts to raise recruits for the army, has been elected President of the Company, and his election is a guarantee that it will be managed energetically and well.

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery.

The following is an extract from a letter written by Rev. C. Z. WEISER to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.:

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. WINSLOW will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are sure that we will teach our "baby" (sure, "A Blessing on Mrs. WINSLOW" for helping her to survive and escape the grieving, enfeebling and teething stage. We confirm every word set forth in the Prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. AWAY with your "Cordial," "Paregoric," "Drops," "Laudanum," and every other "Narcotic," by which the babe is dragged into stupidity, and rendered dull and lifeless for life.

We have never seen Mrs. WINSLOW—knew her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power, we would make her, or she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

CHAPTER II.

And he did many wonderful works, insomuch that his name was pronounced in many tongues.

And there came in unto him Judith, from the seaport of New-Bedford, who had been sick for many years, and her bones were dry, her joints were gone, she ailed soundly, and did rejoice in eating her food.

And she, from those which are called Quakers in the great City of Philadelphia, wrote an epistle saying: "O friend, I thank thee for those bitters which is called Dr. Heinback and hath the picture of Abraham thy friend on the outside. Behold, I was weak, exhausted and despondent. I ate but little and suffered many pains, and thy Plantation Bitters gave me health, likewise only unto the vigor of youth."

And upon each as were afflicted with Liver Complaint, with Sour Stomach, with General Debility, and Dyspepsia, in all parts of the land, did these Bitters produce astonishing cures.

But some unbelievers existed—and some croakers arose—those whose occupation it was to destroy—and many malicious things, and trumpeted their dying sorrows through many papers.

Then Abraham came the sleuth who Drake and said: "This reminds me of a story, which is to say, boys always some Old Bob Ironsides. He of good cheer lived in Saugatuck County once; I was Milton"—but the bursting of a shell from the direction of Petersburgh, cried Abraham, "I grab my gun and be off. Good bye, but first give me a bottle of Plantation Bitters for I have not time to wait; so we have lost his story.

But Drake flourished like a green bay tree—the rocks bear witness to his skill, and the fences proclaim his works, so that those who run may read, and none need suffer who will use the Plantation Bitters.

And the multitude with one voice said: "Explain unto us the Delphic sayings of B. T. Drake's Plantation Bitters." But the voice of the many people his voice could not be heard, and he promised to explain all in his next Epistle which will be under Bill.

And the crowd departed, each with a bottle of Bitters in their hands.

SOMETHING ABOUT BITTERS.

"The advertising columns of newspapers are full of 'Bitters,' which trap the unwary into the purchase of a very poor article of flavored Whisky or Rum, and the sum of which heads thousands every year into an appetite for ardent spirits. Such is not the character of the ORIMEAN BITTERS. The article has been thoroughly tested in the United States Hospital in this city, and unanimously approved by the surgeon in charge and ward physicians, and by eminent physicians of our city, while we have ourselves witnessed many of their remarkable tonic and restorative effects. In one respect it is a most original compound, viz., that although they pleasantly stimulate, as imparting effect follows, called reaction. Hence, for the debilitated and sedentary, nothing else can equal them. We can assure our readers that they may purchase them with entire confidence for purposes set forth in these every side of these ailments for DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA, MORBUS, INDIGESTION, NAUSEA, FLATULENCE, SICK HEADACHE, LOSS OF APPETITE, &c., &c."—*Newark (N. CATARRH CURED.

THE CASE OF HUTCHINGS, THE "LIGHTNING CALCULATOR."

There was published in these columns a few days since the remarkable cure of Hutchings, the "Lightning Calculator." As will known to the public during the many years he exhibited his wonderful arithmetical powers at Barnum's Museum, by the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Hutchings is represented to have been at the gates of death, and but for the timely interference of the Doctor, would now be resting in his grave. This is a remarkable case, and worthy of the attention of persons similarly afflicted.

We think it is but just to Doctor Von Eisenberg to call public attention to this case. There are hundreds in the community suffering from catarrh, who, like the "Lightning Calculator," if not actually preying for death, are ready to accept of anything that promises to relieve them from their distresses. To such we would say, treat not with inexperienced men, but consult, without unnecessary delay, Dr. Von Eisenberg, who, at least, has the honesty to assure his patients whether it is within his power to make them whole or not.

DEAFNESS CURED.

From the Tribune.

EARS TO THE DEAF.

Every man and especially every woman, believes in his or her physician. There are philosophical minds which hold to an abstract faith in Allopathy, or Homœopathy, or Hydropathy, or some other form of scientific cure; but with the world at large the belief is not in the system, but in the doctor. Especially is this true as regards aurists and oculists. The patient who has recovered his sight or his hearing is sure that the blessing could have been restored to him by no other practitioner than that particular one by whom his eyes or ears were opened. Dr. Von Eisenberg is among our best-known aurists. He has not lost, we care not a brother practitioner his eyes, and in whose skill, therefore, we believe above all others. But we hear of him from those who esteem him not merely as a surgeon, but as a benefactor. A recent case has been related to us, for the truthfulness of which we can vouch, though we can name no names. The patient was a lady who had been deaf from infancy, as a consequence of some of the ailments to which children are liable. Latterly the disease had taken an acute form, and the patient was subject to intense suffering. The deafness was rapidly becoming complete, and the general health breaking down under the physical exhaustion attendant upon constant pain. Ordinary remedies and ordinary advice were useless, and Dr. Von Eisenberg was called in. We need not repeat his diagnosis, for that would be only a list of hard names to the general reader. But he detected at sight the seat of disease, first in one portion of the organism, then in another, and with manipulations as skillful as his insight was accurate, he removed the causes, and the who, from infancy, had heard with difficulty, and latterly hardly at all, was restored first to perfect hearing and then to perfect health. Dr. Von Eisenberg's advertisement contains no of this case, which was thus briefly related, though not at his solicitation. Let him that hath ears, hear.

SIGHT RESTORED.

CONCERNING EYES AND OCULISTS.

Of the Eye science, that which we call seeing is the most important and most valued. In proportion as this sense fails us, we are reduced to helplessness. If entirely destitute of sight, how slow would be our progress in knowledge, and how limited our spheres of action and enjoyment. Endowed with it, the universe becomes a new creation, clothed with beauty and diversified by that infinite variety which never fails to attract the mind and heart.

For several months past this has been a practical subject to us. An intimate acquaintance of the writer's commenced losing his sight, rendered the discharge of daily duties not only painful, but dangerous. Attributing it to the effect of a cold, we endured it through the Spring, with the hope that with the return of warm weather it would entirely disappear. But in this we were doomed to disappointment. Summer progressed, but our friend's sight did not return. Autumn followed, but our friend's sight did not return. Winter followed, but our friend's sight did not return. Other medical advice was sought, but our friend's sight did not return. Still he was told that his sight would return. Spring came, but our friend's sight did not return. Summer follow

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Notwithstanding the extraordinary excitement and large advance in the prices of all kinds of COTTON FABRICS, we shall sell our present large stock (purchased months ago) at a fair profit on the cost of the goods then, without any reference to present extravagant prices.
Our prices, in many cases, will be about TWENTY-FIVE TO FIFTY PER CENT lower than the present market.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT under and by virtue of a certain instrument of indenture, dated the sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, made and executed by RICHARD K. ...Our foreign commerce is thus given historically ...and analytically in sufficient detail and in such array ...as to make it clearly understood.

The second division of the report is occupied with ...an earnestly endeavored exhibition of the domestic ...commerce between the Atlantic and Mississippi ...States. It embraces the quantities and values trans... ...ported east and west by the great railways of the ...Northern States, by the lakes, and by the Welland, ...Erie and Champlain Canals, and the kind and extent ...of the shipping of the lakes.

The tonnage of the domestic trade has been ob... ...tained from the reports of State Commissioners of ...Statistics, Board of Trade, and the principal rail... ...transportation companies and other authorities, and ...the values are estimated by well known commercial ...rules.

The calendar year 1863 is the period chosen, ...as in all respects the best for the purpose of the ...inquiry, and this hitherto unattempted branch of our ...national statistics, though necessarily incomplete, ...and relating to a period of disturbances in our com... ...mercial affairs, nevertheless affords a most interest... ...view of our interstate trade and an excellent ...basis for the future completion of the work.

...A very valuable contribution to the required fund ...of domestic statistics was prepared in the Summer of ...1863, in the Treasury Department, and published as an ...appendix to the "Financial Report" of last December. ...It gives the prices of about eighty leading arti... ...in the New-York market on the first day of each ...month in every year from 1826 to 1863, with brief foot... ...notes of the changes in our Customs tariffs, foreign ...coin, ranges of bank circulation and other causes ...affecting prices.

Another grand division of the statistical report ...makes to the Senate, exhibits the trade of the Pacific ...coast of the United States, its commercial relations ...with Asia, the movement of gold and silver to China ...and India, the inland trade and communications of the ...Pacific States, the statistics of the population, mining ...and agricultural productions and of transportation in ...Nevada, Utah, Colorado and Kansas, in reference to ...the construction and support of the Union Pacific ...Railroad; the like statistics of Arizona, New-...Mexico, Western Texas and Nevada, bearing pros... ...pectively upon a railroad from the States of the ...Lower Mississippi to the Gulf of California; similar ...statistics of Idaho, Montana and Dacotah, with refer... ...ence to overland communication between the Great ...Lakes and the Columbia River; the situation and ...prospects of an international route passing through ...the northwestern States to the Pacific, and in British ...Columbia; the progress of population, mineral ...wealth and other material interests, anticipated with... ...in the present century, in the several belts of interior ...States traversed by these overland routes to the Pa... ...cific Ocean, and the condition and prospects of the ...mining interests of the basin of Lake Superior.

This great undertaking of the Treasury Depart... ...ment, we are informed, has occupied three gentle... ...men very constantly for more than three months, ...soon engaged upon the respective branch of the in... ...quiry assigned to him, and has beside employed three ...or four clerks upon the tabular statements, of which ...the report contains perhaps one hundred and fifty. ...In addition, and as a necessary illustration of the ...scope of the work, a new map has been prepared, ...in which the territories are given up to the latest ...legislation on their boundaries, and indicating the ...railroad routes, as well as the sites of the precious ...metals most recently discovered, and of the points of ...mining enterprise occupied and about to be occu... ...pied in all the mineral regions of the territories of ...the United States and of British America.

TURF RECORD.

New-York Jockey Club—Centreville Course, Long Island.

FAVIC, REPORTER AND SEVEN OAKS THE SEVENTH VICTORY.

The first meeting of the newly-formed New-York Jockey Club, commenced yesterday at the Centreville Course, Long Island.

Three races, and each of them important ones, were on the cards for the opening day of the meeting. As usual, the announcements of the Jamaica Railroad were not to be relied on, and those who expected to take a train at 2 P. M., were greatly disappointed.

A few adventurous individuals, including a corporal's guard of reporters, made strong running by the ordinary horse-cars to East New-York, and ...ounted that they would, at the moderate ...rate between 4 and 5 o'clock—in time to find the first race on the cards decided, and the first heat of the second race over.

But little attempt was made by the Executive Committee to attract attention to the meeting, hence it may be presumed that they desired exclusiveness, and were not ambitious of the presence of "the vulgar herd" able to contribute their dollars in the form of "regular admissions." The consequence was that some eight hundred persons comprised the entire attendance.

No special accommodations were awarded the press. Excluded from the large club stand (which probably seats 50 comfortably), they were left to pursue their necessary avocations in the scrolling of the ordinary stand to which any day patron had access. There was no telegraph board announcing the starters, or result and time of each event—the latter only being given once.

The following is the result of the first day of the meeting:

Jockey Club Purse of $400 for all ages, single dash of three miles.

T. G. Hoore's (Mr. George Wilker) b. h. Pontiac, by Glencoe, dam Lady Morgan by Imp. Bu...caneer, aged —, 120 pounds, Sewell..... 1

Mr. McGrath's ch. c. Eagle, by Vandal, dam by Imp. Sovereign, 2 years old, 82 pounds, Abe..... 2

The betting was two to one on Pontiac, several thousands to five hundred, and hundreds to fifty being laid. A good start was effected, in which Pontiac showed in front and at the turn, had a lead of a dozen lengths, continuing it to the first quarter, where Eagle closed a little, but fell back again. The same disposition answers throughout the first mile; on making the first quarter of the second mile, Eagle drew slightly on Pons, but fell off again, and Pons continued his lead to near the termination of the second mile, where Eagle again drew up, but Pons quickly shook him off, and, at the first quarter of the third mile, led by a length. Pontiac to 50 now offered on Pons. The race was now virtually over, Pons continuing his lead round the back stretch, and taking the home turn at a swinging gait, Arnold using him at the distance, and coming home the easiest of winners, by three clear lengths, in 5:37½. On returning to scale Pons was found to be one lump in the near fore leg, and Eagle very much distressed.

TIME.

First quarter—2:38½; first half—5:16; first mile—1:53; second mile—1:52½. The three miles—5:37½.

REMARK.

This is remarkably fine time; had this single heat been a four mile one, and allowing two minutes for the fourth mile, the time made would have been one ...onds the celebrated first four-mile heat of Henry and Eclipse. As it was, the horse miled that ran faster than their first three miles. A great deal of money changed hands on this event, Eagle, from his Patterson running, being thought at the weights to be able to compete with Pons, the latter being reported lame, as he proved to be on pulling up, but his lame...

...Yankee, 5 h., 5:31½; mile, 1:59; mile and a quarter, 2:19½.

Betting—Early in the morning, in the first pools sold, Seven Oaks was all to nothing the favorite, bringing $56 to the five each of the other two. Later in the day the tables were turned, Mr. Morgan's filly fetching, in unlimited pools, $200, $185, $220 and $120, the $125, $140, $150 and $76 of Seven Oaks, and the forties, $43 and $36 of the Revenue filly. Just prior to the start Seven Oaks rallied again and became first favorite.

In a good start Seven Oaks and the Eclipse filly were close together, but on reaching the stand Seven Oaks had a lead of two lengths.—Seven Oaks from this point had the race in hand, playing with his opponent, (the Revenue filly being entirely out of the race,) and coming home the easiest of winners in a canter by ten lengths. Revenue filly beaten off.

The racing to-day comprises two great events; for particulars of which see advertisements.

Cricket Match.

NEW-YORK VS. SATELLITE, OF WILLIAMSBURGH.

The match between the second eleven of the New-York Club, and the first eleven of the Satellites, resulted in the defeat of the former by a total score of 145 to 144, with six wickets to fall. To-day the famous St. George and Willow Clubs will play a match on the Bedford Cricket grounds, Brooklyn. Wickets will be pitched at 10 o'clock A. M., as the match is to be decided by one day's play.

Bounty-Jumper Shot—Two Citizens Wounded

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a company of recruits from Goshen, in charge of a provost-guard of eleven men, were passing through Morris-street, near Washington, on their way to Pier No. 1, where they were to take the boat for Amboy, one of the recruits threw off his knapsack and attempted to make his escape by running down the street at full speed. The sergeant of the guard called to him to stop, and threatened to shoot him down unless he obeyed. This only served to accelerate his speed; and the sergeant, according to his instruction, ordered his men to fire. Several men fired at the deserter, killing him instantly, and unfortunately wounding two citizens. One of these, named DOHERTY, residing at No. 18 Morris-street, was slightly wounded in the arm. The other, whose name is JOHN F. JOLLY, received severe wounds in the neck and both legs.

The body of the deserter was taken to the Twenty-seventh Precinct Police Headquarters in Cedar-street, where an inquest will be held this morning. He was not identified up to a late hour last evening, but it is supposed that he was a resident of Brooklyn. The guard immediately delivered themselves up, and three of their number, who had fired at the deserter, were detained at the Central Police Headquarters, in Mulberry-street, where they will undergo an examination to-day. It is understood that the guard had been warned that an attempt to escape might be made by one or two of the recruits in passing through this City, and were ordered, in that case, to shoot them down on the spot.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 32 FOURTH-ST., New-York, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

DEAR SIR: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessing I enjoy will convince the most skeptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting. I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable. 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering undera different degree of hearing, or total deafness, to consult you immediately, as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be puerile; but as a measure of precaution, to induce all to call on you at once, without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, languor, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 26th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

CATARRH CURED.
FROM REV. FRED. S. JEWELL.
PROFESSOR OF THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, ALBANY, N. Y.

This may certify that I have been, since 1844, subject to violent periodical attacks of catarrh, marked by a highly inflamed condition of the mucous membranes of the cavities of the head, producing a most distressing species of headache, for days at a time, wholly incapacitating me from business, and, during the paroxysms, confining me to the bed. In some instances the inflammation has extended to the teeth, occasioning toothache; to the throat, producing hoarseness and partial loss of voice; and twice it has so affected the left eye as to confine me for a month or more to a darkened room. These attacks have been accompanied by severely febrile symptoms; by sleeplessness of the head, and in the first stages by watery discharges from the nose, and subsequently becoming acrid and yellow, and, toward the close of the attack, becoming bloody and purulent. I have tried medicines of almost every kind; external applications to the head, such as cupping, blisters, hot vinegar, smelts of some half dozen kinds, and other catarrhal preparations, together with internal remedies, such as alteratives, cathartics and emetics. These have produced no change in the occurrence or character of the disease, and, in no cases with little or no temporary relief. I had come, at length, to believe the disease to be practically beyond either cure or material alleviation.

Under these circumstances, I was led, some five months ago, to make a trial of Drs. Lighthills' treatment, his case as it appeared to me, seeming to require a peculiar method at once approved itself to my judgment as simple, philosophical, and likely to be effective. Notwithstanding the disadvantages under which he labored in dealing with a disease of such long standing, aggravated by the constitutional effects of my professional labors, I found the treatment relieving the disease as it had never been reached before, and producing such a modification and alleviation of its character as I had supposed impossible. I chronicle the result thus:

Although I have been situated several times as that I should necessarily have believed a severe attack of my catarrh inevitable, I have escaped that fate; the symptoms of threatened attack have been very light, and have yielded to the remedies employed by Dr. Lighthill, without the need of recourse to the old but fermentations, or diuretics, and the discharges from the head have resumed the original and natural condition. That I have been able to obtain so material a relief is to me a source of gratitude. In these times I am sensible that whatever the treatment may have cost me.

I make this statement, republished, as a means of acknowledging my obligations to Dr. Lighthill's method of treating catarrh, and with a view to aid any who may have suffered from that disease in forming a just opinion of its merits, and its probable utility in their own case.

FREDERICK S. JEWELL.
